

Today's Paper » NATIONAL » NEW DELHI

Published: August 7, 2012 00:00 IST | Updated: August 7, 2012 05:00 IST

Novel experience

Special Correspondent

The district administration of Kaithal created a history of sorts recently by spending a night in Aahun village to get real time experience of people's difficulties. Kaithal Deputy Commissioner Chander Shekhar told The Hindu that it was an enlightening experience as his team of officers could not only personally interact with the villagers but gauge the effective implementation of various welfare schemes.

More In: NEW DELHI | NATIONAL